

The Fire

D A D G }x 3 D A D D

V1 When the wind blows too hard, Tho the ends in sight,
D G
And my eyes are crying, Tho my smiles alright,
D A
I'm overcome by dreams, And I lose my way,
D G
And what should last forever Can be lost in just one day, I say,

Chorus1 D A D G Bm A D
"Put my head in my heart and save me }x1, Save me from the fire."

V2 D A
It's so easy to indulge In imagined memories,
D G
It's so easy to believe In things that might have been.
D A
The grass is always greener On the other side of town,
Bm A G
So make hay while the sun shines, The last straw is always brown.

Chorus1 D A D G Bm A D
"Put my head in my heart and save me }x3, Save me from the fire."

V3 D A
When it all gets too much, And feelings get confused,
D G
And I'm back to the same crossroads But don't know which path to choose.
D A
And my heart it is convinced That one choice is the best,
Bm A G
But with feelings flying wild I just cant see it from the rest;
D A
I've balanced out the odds With scales on rocky ground,
Bm A G
And the path that leads the way is a path that cant be found,

Chorus1 D A D G Bm A
"Put my head in my heart and save me }x3, Save me from the fire."

V4 So when the winds blown too hard, And our future is not clear,
And our eyes have grown weary, And our smiles have disappeared,
We're overcome by dreams, And we've lost our way,
And what was made together Has been lost in just one day, I say,

Chorus2 D A Bm G
"Put your heart in your head and love me }x2
D A Bm A G
Put your heart in your head...
D A Bm A G D A
Save me from the fire. Save me..."

Chorus1      D        A        D        G                    D    A        D
"Put my head in my heart and save me }x1, Save me from the fire." }x2
